

Fellow Hunters & Shooters

I hope the arrival of our new look 2011 annual catalogue finds you in good health and the new format pleases all. I promise next year all graphics will be changed to colour. It was a big ask to convert to colour in one year so we pushed this huge job out an extra 12 months and in 2012 you will receive our catalogue in full colour.

As many of you will know 2010 was not a good year for Reloaders Supplies. On the 5th of May 2010 Ron Dent passed away after a brief illness, Ron was the founder and owner of Reloaders Supplies and an icon within the industry. His passing left a large hole that we the management & staff at Reloaders are attempting to fill.

Rest in peace Big Boy we miss you.

Looking to the future, Reloaders Supplies intends to continue to provide you with our famous sharp prices, huge range of firearms and shooting related products. We have added a full e-commerce web site so you have the option to shop online. Our "Special Offers" email on Thursday each week will be notifying you of special offers and new products. We are even happy to post you blank order forms as required. Any one who prefers the phone, then that's good too.
